On Friday, May 25, Peter Ehrlich's program chased a number of legendary engines: Union Pacific's #844 and #3985 Challenger, the Southern Pacific's Daylight #4449, and in the 2nd half of the program, Norfolk Southern's A1218 and J611.

images of the busy CSX (and former Conrail) freight corridor from North Bergen, NJ (essentially New York) to Washington, DC, which replicates the B & O's famous "Royal Blue Route."

The scenes will be in geographic order from New Jersey to Philadelphia over the River Line, Harsimus Cove Branch, Lehigh and Trenton Lines, followed by CSX's Philadelphia Subdivision to Baltimore and the Capitol Subdivision to Washington. Most are scanned from older 35mm slides; some are fairly new digitals from 2012, 2015 and 2016.
