The next membership meeting will be on September 27 at 7:30 PM at the Williamson Library at Grand Central Terminal. Meet at the entrance to Track 23 on the upper level at 7:00 or 7:15 PM to be escorted to the library, which is in a secured area. Late arrivals should phone the library at (516) 660-1972. A $5.00 admission fee is charged for non-members. In the event of serious inclement weather, check the website www.nyrre.org or call (516) 660-1972 for cancellation information. Due to security considerations, we have to compile an attendance list for Metro North.

Gary Grahl will present a Super-8 movie program - Streetcar Extravaganza! The program will include the following systems: New York City's last trolley, the Queensborough Bridge Railway and its successors; the brand-new Kitchener-Waterloo ION; the also-brand-new St. Louis Loop; the Kansas City Streetcar; Cincinnati Bell Connector; Memphis Area TA; Norfolk's The Tide; and, if time permits, Detroit's short-lived Washington Boulevard Trolley. People Mover and the new Woodward Avenue Q Line. Yes, streetcars/light-rail are making a come-back here in North America. Come and enjoy!
